

Application

About the Program

Be a part of a special alliance between Coconino Community College and Northern Arizona University. This program will help you make a seamless transition toward earning a baccalaureate degree. Learn more about the program at CCC2NAU.info. Some of the benefits include:

- Academic advising from both institutions.
- NAU student identification card and e-mail address.
- Free attendance at NAU athletic events.
- Access to NAU library, including its online databases.
- No application fee.

Eligibility Requirements

All students applying for the CCC2NAU program must be enrolled at Coconino Community College in at least one class during this semester or the upcoming semester, and

- intend to earn an associate's degree,
- intend to obtain a bachelor's degree at NAU,
- not be a current or former NAU student, and
- have not earned a bachelor's degree.

Students who will not be enrolled in high school in the upcoming semester are welcome to apply.

Some programs of study will require a separate application and additional entrance requirements. You will work closely with a CCC2NAU advisor to determine what university admission and program requirements you will need to complete.

Mandatory Program Components

- Attend program orientation.
- Complete the required, tuition-free, Bridge to NAU course during the first term enrolled in the CCC2NAU program.
- Meet with CCC2NAU academic advisor each semester you are enrolled in the program.
- Provide NAU Fronske Health Center a proof of measles vaccinations, unless born before 12/31/56.
- Request transcripts from all prior institutions you attended to be sent to:

Attn: CCC2NAU Coordinator
Student Support Services
2800 S. Lone Tree Road
Flagstaff, AZ 86001
